The skills I use most in my job...Project Planning

- Event Planning
- Administrative Skills
- Communication
- Prioritisation

The most interesting thing I've worked on in my career so far...For me it's setting up new offices. Over the past 5 years, I've relocated offices in London, Manchester, Bristol & Dubai. Each one different from the other, but each one has provided new insights into building an office environment & culture.

What inspired me into digital and tech...I fell into digital marketing back in 2012 where I interned in Social Marketing, and from there went on in 2013 to Affiliate Marketing. My inspiration came from the people I worked with, who inspired me to go with my gut, and to see how vast the digital landscape was.

My educational background is...I did a degree in Film & TV Production at Anglia Ruskin University which I completed back in 2012, and through this degree, I gained skills in project management and organisation. This then propelled me into my career today, where I've also done a diploma in Event Management back in 2020 and focussed my time into organising events both on and offline for my company.

What advice I'd give to girls thinking about a career in digital and tech...I'm an advocate for always trying something new. I always thought digital (and tech mainly) was for someone who already knew about it. But I went in head first as someone with little experience, and worked my way up, always learning and never giving up.
